

The cave with the swimming pool.

This story includes words that end with /v/.

The cave with the swimming pool.

The man was looking forward to going out for the day. He got up early because he was so excited about going to the cave. It was five o'clock when he got up.

“I can’t wait to drive to the cave! It’s my favourite place!” he thought to himself.

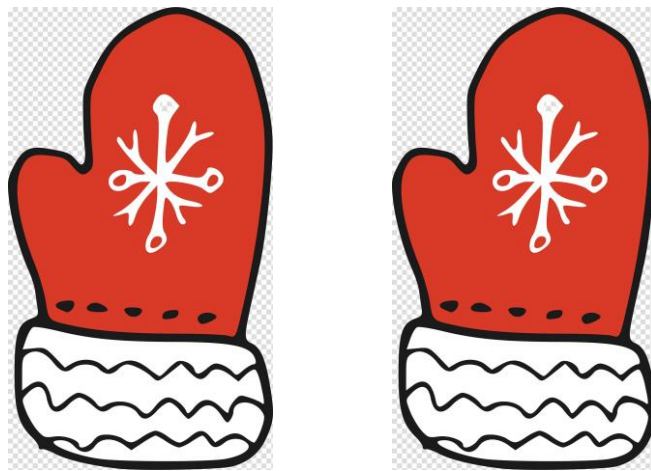

He got up and got dressed. He tried to put his t-shirt on but his arm kept getting stuck in the sleeve. “Oh no!” said the man. Finally, he was able to get his arm through his sleeve.

He decided to have some breakfast so he put his food in the microwave and waited for it to cook. “I love cooking food in the microwave. It always tastes so nice,” he thought to himself.

It was a very cold day so he decided to put his gloves on before he went out. He put a glove on each hand. "I don't want to get too cold," he thought to himself. Then, he was ready to go.

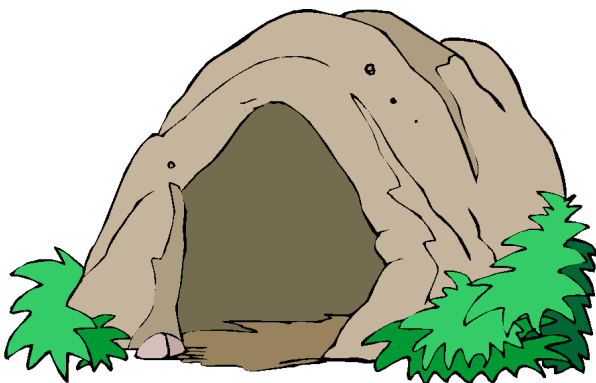

He got into his car and started off on his long drive to the cave.

On the way to the cave, he drove passed a jewellery shop. “I think I’ll buy a present for my friend. I love my friend so much and I would love to give her a present,” he thought. He bought her a lovely necklace then continued on his drive to the cave.

Soon, he reached the cave. “This is my favourite cave because inside, it has a swimming pool. I can’t wait to dive in!” he thought.

He really enjoyed swimming in the cave.
“That was a great dive. I wish I could dive like that!” someone shouted. Soon it was five o’clock and time for him to leave the cave and drive home.

“Before I leave, I need to wave goodbye to the cave,” he thought. So, he waved to the cave and then started to drive home.

When he got home, he was so hungry.
He had another microwave meal and then decided to go to bed.

“What a lovely day I’ve had. I can’t wait to drive to the cave again.” Then, he got into bed and fell straight to sleep.

The end.