The gladiator's busy day.
The gladiator got up early because he knew that he had a busy day ahead. He was looking forward to going on a walk to the shops.

It was a cold day so he put some gloves on. He also put his glasses on so that he could see where he was going.

The gladiator went to the shop because he needed to buy some glue and some glowsticks. He would keep the glowsticks for the next party that he went to.

It was a gloomy day outside so once the gladiator had been to the shop; he decided to go home and do some crafts.

The gladiator found a globe and covered it with glitter. He used the glue that he had bought from the shop to stick the glitter to the globe. It took him hours to cover the globe in glitter. "That looks better!" he thought to himself, when the globe was finished.

The gladiator was so tired that he had a glass of water then went to bed.

"What a busy day," he thought. Then, the gladiator fell to sleep.

The end.
