A day with Pluto.

Pluto was really excited about going to the park for the day. He couldn't wait to play on the slide.

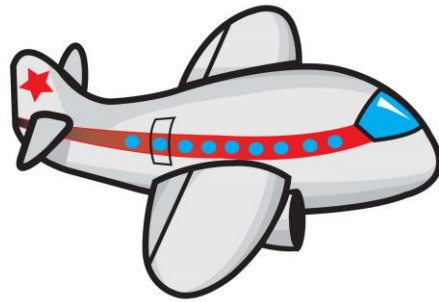

The park was a long way away so Pluto jumped into his plane and flew there.

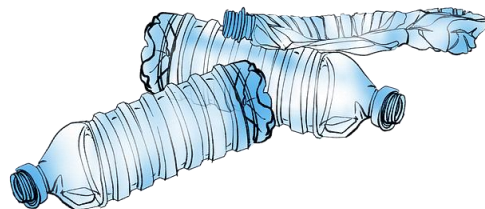

On the way to the park, Pluto flew past lots of planets. Pluto really liked flying in his plane.

When Pluto got to the park, he fell off the slide and cut his knee. He had a plaster in his plane so he put the plaster on his knee.

Pluto looked around at the park and saw some lovely plants. He also noticed that there was lots of plastic so he picked it up and put it in the bin.

Then, Pluto saw two children playing a game. Pluto asked the children if he could join in with them and they said that he could. He really enjoyed playing the game.

It was nearly time for Pluto to go home. He sat down on the grass, found his plate and his plum and had his dinner. Pluto really enjoyed his plum.

After Pluto had eaten his lunch, he threw his plate in the bin and got back into his plane to fly home. "What a lovely day!" he thought to himself.

The end.
