The spaceman and the spaghetti.

The spaceman was really excited about going to his favourite Italian restaurant. Spaghetti was his favourite food and he couldn't wait to eat some.

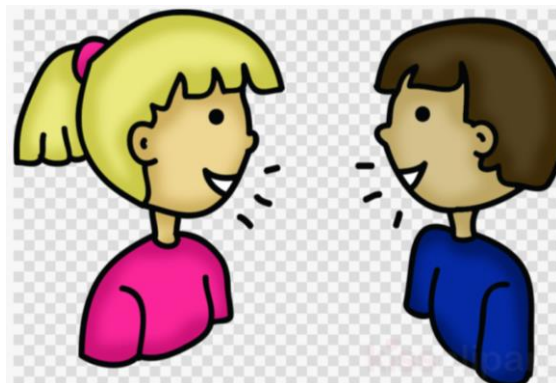

The restaurant was a long way away so the spaceman jumped into his spaceship and flew there.

When the spaceman arrived at the restaurant, he saw his friends, SpongeBob and Spider. “Can we sit next to you?” they asked. “Of course you can! That would be lovely,” said the spaceman.

It was so loud in the restaurant. Lots of people were speaking really loudly. The spaceman, SpongeBob and Spider had to shout their order because the waitress couldn't hear over all the noise.

The spaceman ordered spaghetti. He told SpongeBob and Spider about how nice the spaghetti was at this restaurant. It sounded lovely so SpongeBob and Spider ordered spaghetti too.

Soon, their spaghetti arrived and the spaceman, SpongeBob and Spider started to eat it. "Yummy!" they said.

After a few minutes, SpongeBob said, “This spaghetti is very spicy! It’s burning my tongue!”

“I need a drink!” said SpongeBob. The spaceman tried to pass SpongeBob’s drink to him but he spilt the drink all over the table. “Oh no, I really need a drink, my tongue is burning!” shouted SpongeBob.

Once SpongeBob had finished his drink, his tongue didn't hurt as much. "I didn't think that the spaghetti was spicy at all," said the spaceman.

Suddenly, Spider realised that he had lots of spots on his face. "Oh no, I think I'm allergic to this spaghetti!" said Spider. "That's a shame, it's lovely spaghetti," said the spaceman.

The spaceman dabbed Spider's face with a sponge and that seemed to help. His spots soon went down.

Then, the spaceman finished his spaghetti. “What a stressful day! I think it’s time for me to go home now,” said the spaceman. So, he waved goodbye to Spider and SpongeBob, got into his spaceship and flew home.

As soon as the spaceman got home, he was so tired. He got straight into bed and started thinking about the spaghetti. “I can’t wait to have some more spaghetti!” he thought.

“It’s a shame that SpongeBob thought it was too spicy and that Spider came out in spots. Maybe they shouldn’t have it next time!” he thought. Then, he fell straight to sleep.

The end.
