The van driver's busy day.

It was going to be a busy day for the van driver. He had lots of deliveries to make.

First, he delivered a vampire costume as it was nearly Halloween.

Next, he delivered a vase. "I've been waiting for this vase for a long time," said a lady. "Sorry it's so late," said the van driver.

It was time for the van driver to have some lunch. He ate some vegetables then got back into his van.

After lunch, the van driver delivered a vacuum cleaner and a vest.

The van driver had another break in the village as he had been driving for a long time.

The last delivery of the day was to a princess. “My veil! It’s my wedding tomorrow and I was worried that I wouldn’t have it in time,” said the princess.

“Don’t worry, it’s here now,” said the van driver. “Thanks so much,” said the princess.

The van driver waved goodbye and went home. “What a long day! I hope I can have a quieter day tomorrow!” he thought.

The end.
