A day with the zoo keeper.

The zoo keeper was looking forward to a busy day.

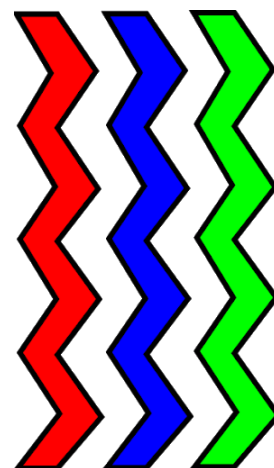

The zoo keeper really loved working at the zoo.

The zoo keeper put her coat on and did the zip up. She then drove to work.

She loved all of the animals at the zoo but her favourite animal was the zebra. She thought that the stripes on the zebra were amazing.

The zebra really enjoyed music so the zoo keeper took her xylophone to work and played it to the zebra.

The zoo keeper looked at her watch and realised that she'd been playing the xylophone for hours. The zebra had fallen asleep to the music and he was snoring!

“I think I’ll go and check on the rest of the animals,” thought the zoo keeper.

She went to see the rest of the animals then went home. “What a busy day. I think I’ll leave my xylophone at home tomorrow, then I’ll get more work done!” thought the zoo keeper. Then, she fell to sleep.

The end.
