

The genie and the three wishes.

This story includes words that have /sh/ in the middle.

The genie and the three wishes.

The man woke up early and was looking forward to his day out fishing. It was a very sunny day. The sunshine was very hot so he made sure that he put his sun lotion on before he went outside.

He also made sure that he had some breakfast before he went fishing. So, he cracked some eggs from the egg shells and cooked the eggs with some mushrooms. “Yummy!” he said when he was eating it.

Then, he quickly washed his face and brushed his hair before he went out fishing.

When he got to the lake, he had a great time fishing. He was fishing for hours. Just before he was about to pack away and go home, he caught something very unusual.

When he pulled his fishing rod out of the lake, he noticed that he had caught a lamp. “Wow!” said the man who was fishing.

“I’ve seen these lamps on telly before. Normally there’s a genie inside,” the man thought to himself. So, he rubbed the lamp and out popped the genie. “You have three wishes!” said the genie. “Wow! How exciting!” said the man.

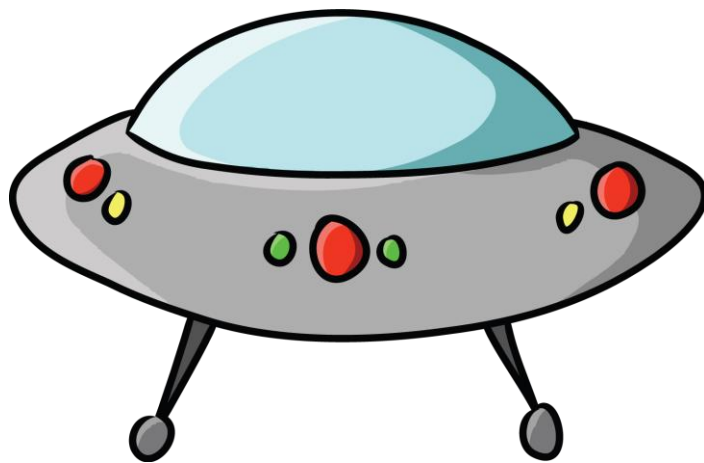

“For my first wish, I would like to go to the ocean. I love being by the ocean!” said the man. “Your wish is my command!” said the genie and soon, the man who was sitting by the ocean.

When the man was sitting by the ocean, he kept sneezing and he needed to blow his nose. “My second wish is for a box of tissues,” said the man. “Your wish is my command!” said the genie and soon, the man had a box of tissues.

“For my third wish, I would like to go to space so I’ll need a spaceship,” said the man. “Your wish is my command!” said the genie and soon, the man was in a spaceship and had flown to space.

The man had an amazing time in space and saw all the planets. After pushing the special button in the spaceship, the man was soon back at the lake.

The genie had vanished because the man had used his three wishes. Then, the man went home. When he got home, he got straight into bed.

“What an amazing day! I can’t believe that I’ve been to the ocean and to space in a spaceship! I hope I catch another lamp when I’m fishing tomorrow!” he thought. Then, he fell straight to sleep.

The end.
